Why did you apply for a computer through the AMBUCS ASK Project? (choose only one) <input type="checkbox"/> I could only afford a computer through this program. <input type="checkbox"/> The computer was only available to me through this program. <input type="checkbox"/> The computer was available to me through other programs (for example the Department of Rehabilitation Services) but the system was too complex or the wait time was too long. <input type="checkbox"/> None of the above.
Does applicant have access to another computer in home? Yes No If yes, why does applicant need another one?
Does applicant have knowledge of computers and software? Yes No (If no, applicant will need to find someone who can teach them how to use the computer. We will provide a short orientation/demonstration and written instructions at the time the computer is picked up.)
Basically we have two types of computer and software combinations available. Please pick the one that you feel would come closest to satisfying the needs you have for a computer. <input type="checkbox"/> Computer with lots of educational programs for children of all ages (from colors and shapes to typing tutors, social studies, phonics, spelling, and arithmetic to algebra); lots of games for both adults and children; basic word processing (letters, reports, journals), spreadsheet (budget, household and other records), and database (labels, address lists) programs. No Internet access. <input type="checkbox"/> Computer with few or no games, includes software to do word processing, spreadsheet and database activities. Higher operating system needed to run assistive software such as voice recognition, JAWS, ZOOM (not included at this time). Best for preparing to work in an office environment. Best if you plan to access the Internet, participate in online education, and send email. The computer and software will not be the latest model/version but it will be more modern than the first choice. Dial up modem for Internet provided.
I understand the following: Sooner AMBUCS provides computers that are not ready to access the Internet or send email. If approved I will receive a computer, monitor, keyboard, and mouse. Assistive devices, printers, printer cables, cartridges for printers, etc. are not normally available. Computers are not delivered; they must be picked up in Norman, Oklahoma, at a designated place, date and time by the applicant or their representative. Notification will be by mail when the computer is ready or if the application is not approved. The waiting period/type of computer will vary according to the number/type of computers that are donated for us to use for this project. _____Signature of Applicant or representative
